Dear Mr. Johnson,

You taught us how to play baseball partially. Also, I have increased in my skill. I have been playing catch with myself, and no matter how far it goes I always reach my hand out to get it.

When I'm on the All Stars I'll be on the road to fame and success, I'll be living a good life. Then I'll be everybody's role model.

It has been a while since I've played b-ball. Now I'm not as rusty at it. So I might get back into it. Then I could be on the All Stars.

Sincerely,

Donovan Jones
